Overall Transition Process for establishing new Regional Service Commissions

Regional Service Delivery Act introduced in the Legislative Assembly that calls for the establishment of 12 Regional Service Commissions.	May 2012
Transition Leaders are named and begin work with stakeholders.	May/June 2012
Working Groups are established in each region to work with the Transition Leader to facilitate the transition.
Guidelines will be made available by the Department of Environment and Local Government to assist in the transition process.
Minister's information tour on the RSCs. There will be eight sessions held across the province.	Beginning May 2012
Transitional regulations for the RSC are develoed and posted for a 28 day public review. Following the public review, the transitional regulations and provisions are put into law (proclaimed).	Summer 2012
Transition Leaders and Working Groups continue with transition preparations including development of the RSC budget for 2013.	June-Septembe 2012
Interim Boards of Directors are appointed.	September - December 2012
Interim Boards approve the 2013 RSC budgets and prepare for the establishment of the RSCs on January 1, 2013.	(budgets must be approved by
The final regulations under the RSD Act are posted for 28 day public review.	mid-November)

- District Planning Commissions and Solid Waste Commissions are dissolved.
- Regional Service Delivery Act is proclaimed and the 12 Regional Service Commissions are in place and formalized.

