

Bilingual in New Brunswick at the A1 level

Here are a few examples of what I can do:

Name of the student:

Date (yyyy-mm-dd):

A1	 <h2>Listening</h2>	Without help - easily	With a little help	With a lot of help	This is a goal
A1.1	I can understand simple personal questions about myself.
	I can understand simple basic greetings.
	I can understand very simple instructions and tasks.
	I can understand very simple words and descriptions.
	I can also:
A1.2	I can understand simple messages if people speak very slowly and use very simple words.
	I can understand simple descriptions (e.g., color, number and size).
	I can understand simple directions if people speak very slowly and very clearly.
	I can understand numbers, prices and times.
	I can also:

Bilingual in New Brunswick at the A1 level

Here are a few examples of what I can do:

Name of the student:

Date (yyyy-mm-dd):

A1	 <h2>Reading</h2>	Without help - easily	With a little help	With a lot of help	This is a goal
A1.1	I can understand very simple written instructions.
	I can understand certain expressions and very simple sentences in very simple texts.
	I can understand a very simple invitation.
	I can also:
A1.2	I can read a very simple, very short text.
	I can find simple, important information on posters.
	I can understand a simple form well enough to know where to add my basic information.
	I can also:

Bilingual in New Brunswick at the A1 level

Here are a few examples of what I can do:

Name of the student:

Date (yyyy-mm-dd):

A1	 Oral interaction	Without help - easily	With a little help	With a lot of help	 This is a goal
A1.1	I can say that I do not understand or that I do not know.
	I can tell people my name and I can ask other people their name.
	I can talk to someone using simple words.
	I can use basic greetings to say hello or goodbye, see you tomorrow.
	I can also:
A1.2	I can greet people of all ages respectfully.
	I can ask and answer simple questions about very familiar topics if people help me.
	I can indicate time with simple expressions like tomorrow or next week.
	I can ask for simple directions.
	I can also:

Bilingual in New Brunswick at the A1 level

Here are a few examples of what I can do:

Name of the student:

Date (yyyy-mm-dd):

A1	 Oral production	Without help - easily	With a little help	With a lot of help	This is a goal
A1.1	I can name some very common objects such as foods, drinks, clothing and body parts.
	I can count out loud from 1 to 100.
	I can share simple information about myself (name, age, address).
	I can say where I live.
	I can spell my name out loud.
	I can also:
A1.2	I can introduce myself and other people.
	I can give basic information about my school, my class or my family.
	I can describe what I like and what I don't like.
	I can talk about the weather and the seasons using very simple sentences.
	I can also:

Bilingual in New Brunswick at the A1 level

Here are a few examples of what I can do:

Name of the student:

Date (yyyy-mm-dd):

A1	 Writing	Without help - easily	With a little help	With a lot of help	This is a goal
A1.1	I can write very familiar words.
	I can write very simple, short sentences using a model.
	I can fill in a simple form with my personal information.
	I can also:
A1.2	I can write very simple messages and questions.
	I can write information about myself in a short letter or email.
	I can write a very simple description about something I know well.
	I can also:				